

For Immediate Release

D.A. Davidson Presents:
Holidays with the Trail Band

With the holidays fast approaching, Oregonians are invited to celebrate with some of the Northwest's finest musicians at the 16th Annual Holidays with the Trail Band concert series – a benefit for Friends of the Children – Portland.

Holidays with the Trail Band at the Aladdin Theater is a unique performance of classical and modern holiday music, reminiscent of the parlor orchestras and town square bands of the 19th and early 20th centuries. Stunning vocalizations and colorful instruments such as the mandolin, penny-whistle, fiddles, hammer dulcimer and tuba create a wonderful spirit to kick-off the holiday season. Members of the Trail Band include former Quarterflash singer Rindy Ross, Marv Ross, Mick Doherty, Cal Scott, Phil & Gayle Neuman (of the Oregon Renaissance Band), Eddie Parente and Dan Steuber. In addition, special guests are featured each year, including northwest diva Linda Hornbuckle and comedian Scott Parker.

Friends of the Children – Portland is an exceptional early intervention/prevention organization, founded in 1993 by Portland native Duncan Campbell, which focuses on selecting the community's most vulnerable youth and providing them with professionally trained, paid mentors, called Friends. These mentors guide and stay with the children until completion of high school (approx. 12 1/2 years), helping our community's children develop the relationships, goals and skills necessary to break cycles of poverty, abuse and violence and become successful in life!
